

COMPAÑÍA LEVANTINA DE REDUCTORES – CLR (Spain)

Type: SME

Nº of Employees: 58

Description:

COMPAÑÍA LEVANTINA DE REDUCTORES, designer, manufacturer of gearmotors and gear boxes. Our wide range of product is used in several industrial applications by their design and configurations. We integrate our philosophy of management and quality, price and downtimes in each one of our products and services.

We based the condition and characteristic of our products and services based on the development of attributes and the nature of such and according to its applications; through a direction with commitment to support and develop each departments and human resources with a collective responsibility.

GREAT SOLUTIONS SMALL DIMENTIONS

A synergy of experience, know how and innovation.

DESIGN · CODESIGN · PROJECTS
STUDY OF CASES · CUSTOMIZE PRODUCTS
GEARMOTORS AND GEAR BOXES

Avda. Joaquín Vilanova, 30
Apartado 368 – IBI (Alicante) España
Tel.: +34 965 553 607
Fax.: +34 965 553 653

www.clr.es
info@clr.es

Main tasks: Main activity in WPs 7, 12 & 14 (end user).

Degree of Involvement: 18PM.

Key staff:

Vicente Martín-Pina,

General Manager, Technical & Commercial Responsible in CLR. Vice-chairman of the Association of Industry in Ibi (Spain). As coordinator of the Technical Department he has a broad experience in carrying out tailored projects for motor reducer applications applied to the vending & car industry.

Iván Sánchez-Verdú,

Technician in electricity & industrial electronics, with expertise in carrying out mechanical projects. Experience in design, programming & development of: projects for controlling motor reducers & automatic machinery, verifying final product & improvement of processes production. Director of Projects in the Electronics R&D Dept.

Verónica Guillén Vicente-Arche.

BSc in Chemistry. She is Director of the Management of Quality.

José Barrocal-Rodríguez,

Plastics injection moulding technician is currently Director of Mechanical R&D Dept.