

FAPERIN S.L. - Spain

Type: SME

Nº of Employees 20

Description: Faperin is a firm which accumulates more than 25 years of experience in the world of moulds and plastic injection. They offer the full development of a piece from design until the posterior production in their injection plant and assembly. Faperin is ISO certified and focused on aesthetic and technical pieces with an added value.

Applications: The main sectors in which they are developing their activity are:

- Automobile. Including some development projects.
- Appliances.
- Electricity.
- Plastic files and accessories for computer environment.

Main tasks: Member of the Board, Leader of WP 12, active in WPs 5 & 7. New process development (Injection moulding) / new products.

Degree of Involvement: 22PM

Key staff :

Alfredo M. Antolí is the Manager of Faperin, he carries out the Technical & Commercial Direction of the enterprise with 22 years experience in mould manufacturing & plastic injection moulding.

Pascual Martínez Molina, an Engineer in Electronics & Telecommunication is a mould designer & an expert Technician in CAD/CAE software.

Alfredo M. Durà is currently the Production Director in the plastics injection Department & is also the Quality Director of Faperin, S.L. with 10 years of experience in thermoplastic injection

Araceli Senabre, is a Chemistry Graduate and she is in charge of the quality assurance in Faperin. She also takes care of customer's quality matters.